

KEDARKANTHA TREK

26th - 30th January'24

KEDARKANTHA FOR US

This one is for all the mountain lovers, people who are snow fanatics and are a fan of good views. If you are an adventure junky, that just adds to it and makes it a perfect trip for you. But even if you are not, trust me you don't want to miss out on these surreal views.

Trekking in mountains is some time all you need in life. Kedarkantha trek offers you breath taking views of the snow capped mountains like no other, as well as trekking through those lush green forests filled with pine trees.

The terrains are so pretty, that sometimes on the way, all you will see is snow as far as your sight can reach. Known for it's night sky and rich mythological significance, this place definitely feels other worldly.

Time to summit a peak? ;)

Day 2: Early morning trek to Juda ka Talab. O/N camping at Juda Ka talab

It is time to rise and shine Firgun Family as we begin the first day of our trek after breakfast. We will start our journey traversing through the lush green snow clad forests. The forest is filled with pine trees and Swargrohini Massif in the backdrop. After 5 hours of trekking, we will reach Juda Ka Talab, which is at the altitude of 2,700 meters. With a grasping mythological story behind it, this lake has the best view to offer.

The entire Swargrohini peak is visible from the lake. This place is best known for its night sky and spellbinding views. We will be camping here for the night. The milky way looks godly from here. Get prepared to be blown away.

Time for you to witness some shooting stars. Keep those wishes ready!

Day 3: Morning trek to Kedarkantha Base Camp. O/N camping in base camp along with music and stargazing

Today, we will trek to the Kedarkantha base camp from Juda ka Talab. The distance from Juda Ka Talab to Kedarkantha base camp is around 4 kms and it would take us around 3 hours to reach the camp.

This trek is through some dense forests of oak and pine trees along with some steep ridges and much more dense areas that were present before. Be ready to be surrounded by a sheet of white snow.

Once we reach our camp we will have our lunch.

It will technically be our last night in camps so we deserve a good music along with some conversations under the star studded sky. Mountains are more about peace and less about partying and that is what we will be focussing on. Isn't that what you are looking for?

We will stay overnight at the base camp itself.

Day 4: Trek to Kedarkantha summit early in the morning. Trek back to Kedarkantha Base Camp for lunch. Trek further down to Sankri by evening. O/N Sankri

A photograph of two trekkers standing in a snowy mountain landscape. The person on the left is wearing a bright yellow jacket and a large, shaggy brown fur hat. The person on the right is wearing a blue jacket and colorful ski goggles. They are both smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a vast, white, snow-covered mountain slope.

Today, we will conquer the Kedarkantha Peak. We will start early at around 3-4 am as we have plans of witnessing the once in a lifetime sunrise view from the summit. The forests will become more dense as we proceed towards the summit but that is what adds to the beauty of these secluded places away from the maddening crowd with a dreamy company. YJHD moment? Just you and the mountain peak :')

Once we reach the summit, we will enjoy the view from there and not to forget, make ample memories with the group we are trekking with. Definitely a once in a lifetime moment - "Toh Zinda Ho Tum" kind of feels <3

We will trek down to the base camp and have breakfast. Post breakfast we will now descend towards Sankri Village via the same route amongst the lush green pine trees and the beautiful Himalayan range overlooking us. Once we reach the village, we will have something to eat and rest. We will be staying the night in Sankri.
